

The lure of Spring is bringing hundreds of happy promenaders along the popular Fourteenth street thoroughfare, and as usual, they fall in at the drug store of Board & McGuire, 1912 1/2 Fourteenth street, "the place where everybody meets everybody else," or you see them enjoying those delicious sodas at Ninth and You streets, the popular "Lookout Corner" of Board & McGuire.

Mr. Reuben F. Haynes has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. John Favor, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Miss Florence Smith was a guest at her home in Dorchester, Mass., during Easter week.

Many social functions were given in honor of Miss Lillian Evans during her stay in Boston, recently, as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Butler R. Wilson.

Misses Mattie Childs and Gertrude Smith, had a pleasant stay in Philadelphia recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gardner have moved from Philadelphia to this city. Miss Anna Murdock was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Lee in Philadelphia last week.

Mrs. Nomah Curtis was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Jones while in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Julia A. Shaw was the recent guest of her parents in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Anna Tubman Wright and Miss Emma J. Burrell visited friends in Bethlehem, Pa., last week.

Mrs. Harry Williams, of Philadelphia, Pa., was a visitor here last week.

Mrs. Nellie Williams, of Geneva, Switzerland, is here on a visit.

J. Raynor Jackson is in New York.

Dr. J. W. Morse has the gem drug store in the northwest. Prescriptions carefully compounded by registered clerks.

Misses Helen and Minnie Henry have returned to Snow Hill, Md., after a pleasant trip to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson were recent visitors in Baltimore.

Mrs. Walter Singleton was royally entertained during her visit to Harrisburg, Pa.

Mr. J. C. Dancy spent a few hours in Harrisburg, Pa., last week, while enroute home from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. Almolier B. Gillespie has gone to Atlantic City for an indefinite stay.

Mr. William Scott recently visited Newark, N. J.

Mr. W. H. Leigh is in Suffolk, Va.

Col. Henry Lincoln Johnson is in Atlanta, Ga.

Miss Blanch K. Ferguson entertained in honor of friends on Monday evening at her residence in Wallach Place N. W. Covers were laid for the following guests: Misses Irving, Pierceson, Smackum, Green, Mason, Syphax and Foster. Messrs. Carson, Cooper, Williams and Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Neuman and Mr. and Mrs. Schanney. The evening was joyously spent.

Dr. Morse has the finest assortment of candies and toilet articles that can be purchased anywhere in the city.

Mr. Booker T. Washington has been invited to be one of the principal speakers at the National Sunday School Convention, to be held at San Francisco, June 20th.

Master Anthony M. Sanders is visiting his brother, Mrs. R. S. Allen, in Minneapolis, Minn.

A musical was given at St. Luke's P. E. Church on Sunday evening last, in interest of the Young Women's Christian Association.

The attendance was large. The following program was rendered:

1. Processional.....Choir
2. Selection.....Choir
3. "The Publican".....Vandewater
4. Solo—"It is Enough".....Mendelsohn
5. "The Ninety and Nine".....Campion
6. Solo.....Dr. Sumner Wormley
7. "I will Lift up Mine Eyes".....Edward Marzo
8. "He shall feed His Flock".....Handel
9. Recessional.....Choir

Don't pass Morse's Drug Store, at Nineteenth and L streets northwest. Assistant United States Attorney General James A. Cobb left the city this week for Hartford, Conn., on legal business. Mr. Cobb will return today.

Dr. James L. Shepard, of Durham, N. C., was in the city this week enroute to Durham, N. C.

Mr. Aaron Gaskins, who was injured some time ago, is almost himself again.

Among the Washingtonians at the Assembly in Baltimore last week were Mr. Scurlough, Prof. C. L. Davis, Misses Tyson, Clarkson and Perry.

Miss Blanche Wright will entertain Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Stella Majors and Miss Estelle Arnold, of Chicago, Ill., in Room 10, True Reformers' Hall.

Mr. Ira T. Bryan, of Nashville, Tenn., is in our city this week.

Mrs. Jessie Pryor, of Jersey City, N. J., is visiting friends here.

Dr. Morse, who has the finest drug store in the West End, also has the best prescription compounder. Dr. Morse, who is also a registered pharmacist, never makes a mistake. Call 19th and L streets northwest.

Mrs. Alice E. Hall left the city with her son Saturday night for Jersey City, N. J., where she will remain several months.

The finest cigars in the city are sold at Morse's drug store, Twentieth and L streets northwest.

Mrs. Joseph H. Anderson, who has been ill for several months, left for New York last week, from thence to Atlantic City, where he will remain several months.

The recital at the People's Congregational Church Friday night, April 28, by Miss Marie James, was quite a success.

Mrs. W. T. Chapman, of Lincoln, D. C., is visiting in Pennsylvania. She is having a most enjoyable time.

Dr. John W. Morse, of the Gem Drug Store, at Nineteenth and L streets northwest, has everything that a first-class druggist possesses. Drop in.

Mr. A. W. Scott, of the local bar, with his wife and child, will visit his home in North Carolina very soon.

Attorney Fountain Peyton, who left a few weeks ago for Detroit, Mich., returned to the city last week for his family, who will accompany him back to Detroit within a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Sidney Pittman and children will visit Tuskegee, Ala., this month. They will remain several weeks.

Nothing funny about it. People just like to deal at the drug stores of Board & McGuire at 1912 1/2 Fourteenth street northwest and at Ninth and U streets northwest, two places "where everybody meets everybody."

Miss Mattie Collier spent a fortnight in Philadelphia, receiving much attention from friends.

Miss Charlotte E. Hunter is making an effort to open free kindergartens in the city for the purpose of accommodating the numberless little children for whom there is no room in the public schools. Miss Hunter is the best kindergarten trainer in the city—having studied both here and abroad, she is well prepared for her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth, of 13th street, have recently had one more added to their little family.

Miss Evelyn Lacy was very becomingly gowned at the senior dance of M Street High School.

Master James Fields, of Newport News, was visiting friends in this city during the Easter week.

Bring your job work to The Bee office, or address W. Calvin Chase, Jr., 1109 Eye street N. W., or 1212 Florida avenue N. W.

West Washington News.

The annual banquet of Past Grand Master Council, No. 44, G. U. O. of O. F. took place Friday evening, of which a full account will appear in our next issue.

The special sacred musical with popular reading, under the auspices of the Trustees' Voluntary Circle of Mt. Zion M. E. Church, on Sunday evening, May 21, 1911, promises to be highly entertaining to lovers of sacred songs.

The Epworth League of Mt. Zion M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon was largely attended. A very instructive and interesting program was presented with Miss Josephine Carroll presiding.

Dr. Charles H. Marshall, whose illness, was mentioned a few days ago, is convalescing and attending to his large practice again.

Mrs. Almira M. Hawkins, of Newburgh, N. Y., who has been visiting her parents and twin sister, Mrs. Norah M. Dinguid, left for home Sunday night. Miss Mildred Porter, her sister, also left on the same train to spend a few weeks in Newburgh.

"My Friend From Dixie."

Detroit, Mich., April 24.—J. Lubric Hill and his company of 40 colored stars were well received yesterday afternoon when they opened a week's engagement in the Lafayette Theater. After months of crime it is really refreshing to witness a good, clean comedy.

Heralded as the best colored organization in America, and in a play where Southern atmosphere abounds, the cast and production are by far the best seen here this season. The book and music of "My Friend From Dixie" are by Mr. Hill, and, as Mandy Lee in the cast, he furnishes a lot of new fun.

There are any number of pretty girls and funny men. As for the music it would be an injustice to pick out any one piece and say it was best. In all there are 17 musical numbers, including individual and chorus numbers, and each is that catchy, snappy kind that is whistled in the streets.

Miss Leona Marshall, a pretty girl with a dainty voice, scored a success as Lucinda Langtry, a "merry widow," while R. W. Shelton is the typical boneheaded husband. Will Brown as Shelton's friend causes all the action. He furnishes a good example of the confidence game. It is around this group of players that the plot hinges. Many pretty ballads round it out into one of the most elaborate and entertaining musical shows seen at the Lafayette.

The first act is laid in Leesburg, Va., on the plantation of Jasper Green, while the second and third take place in Washington, D. C. The whole play covers a space of three weeks.

Insult to a Negro Audience.

May 1, 1911.
Editor The Bee: The White man imported here from the South to speak against Booker T. Washington and his work, before Bethel Literary last week, was not insulting to Mr. Washington, nor his friends, neither being present; but, he did offer a gross insult to that Negro audience when he referred to Mr. Washington as he did.

MAJOR CHARLES R. DOUGLASS DEFENDS DR. WASHINGTON.

Mr. Washington, in spite of his enemies, is the foremost Negro in America today.

Any insult based upon lies, directed at him, to a Negro audience, is an insult to them, and should have been resented by them on the spot. Every Negro man, woman and child above the age of 16 years, present at that meeting partook of that insult, and took it without a murmur of dissent, so if there is any chagrin felt it should rest with those present, and partakers of the feast. The menu was no doubt carefully prepared beforehand.

CHAS. R. DOUGLASS.

Collector Anderson Honored.

New York City, April 27.—The Colored Republican Club of the city of New Rochelle gave its seventh annual dinner on Tuesday evening, April 25th, at League Hall, which is owned by the Colored Cooperative League of that city. Collector Charles W. Anderson was the guest of honor, and one of the features of this dinner was the number of white Republican officials who turned out to honor Mr. Anderson.

Nearly two hundred guests sat down, and among them being the following:

Mayor H. E. Colwell, Hon. Henry Scherp, sheriff of West Chester County; Judge Samuel Swinburne, Tax Collector John J. O'Brien, Ex-Mayor Henry S. Clark, Postmaster Eben Adams, City Treasurer J. Albert Mahlstadt, Superintendent of Schools Doctor Albert Lenard, County Supervisor Merritt, Inspector of Post offices John M. Parson, and several members of the Board of Aldermen. Mayor Colwell responded to the toast "Our City," and Sheriff Scherp to that of "Our County." The officers of the club are: J. Howard Harper, president; B. S. Howard, vice-president; Joseph Bullock, Treasurer; William J. Brown, Secretary, and Samuel J. Davis, chairman of the executive committee.

President Taft Banqueted.

New York City, April 27.—Mr. Taft recalled that promise in his speech, saying in his opening sentences that he was there to keep the promise. The dinner was given by the Hungarian American Republican Club for the President, and his speech was principally in praise of the Hungarians and the valuable citizens they made for America. He said that he was glad to know a race that could master a language so difficult that they could easily learn all other languages, and he was glad to see them amalgamate with the many other races that came to this country to make the typical American.

Introduced by Sulzer.

Representative Sulzer had introduced the President with many glowing words of praise, to which Mr. Taft replied that he was glad to meet his hosts as members of the Hungarian American Republican Club, and he was especially glad to know that there was so many Hungarian Republicans, though they had listened to the siren voice of Mr. Sulzer.

Referring again to Mr. Sulzer and his speech of welcome, the President said that it had given him great pleasure to hear the words of Mr. Sulzer, who had come deservedly to head the Foreign Relations Committee of the House of Representatives. Mr. Sulzer had said that politics were not always played in Washington, only 5 per cent of the time.

There might be some difference of opinion on the percentage, but when questions of delicacy in the foreign relations of this country arose and the balance politics were forgotten and all were Americans. Nobody in Washington illustrated this principle better or more recently than had Mr. Sulzer, the President added.

The President ended his speech with a toast to "Franz Josef, Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary."

Marcel Braun, president of the club, was the toastmaster.

W. Calvin Chase, Jr. Nathan Nesbitt
CORNET CLARINET

Music Furnished For All Occasions

—THE—
Wilberforcian Orchestra

J. Sherman Hunnicutt
DIRECTOR AND VIOLIN

1915 6th Street, N. W.

K. F. Phillips, MANAGER, PIANO & VIOLIN
2130 13th Street, N. W.

E. L. Burns, TREASURER AND DRUMS
938 T St. N. W., Phone North 593-m

C. W. Jones J. H. Anderson
PIANO AND CORNET CELLO

W. P. Bayless W. C. Hunnicutt
2D VIOLIN FLUTE

J. B. Clark F. G. Haley
TROMBONE TROMBONE

Mr. Preston, VIOLA

Among the guests at the dinner were Baron von Hengelmueller de Hengevar, the Austrian Ambassador; Alexander de Nuber, the Austrian Consul General; J. Van Vechten Olcott, Lloyd C. Griscom, the Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Hill, William Williams, Commissioner of Immigration; William Barnes, Jr., John Hays Hammond, Oscar S. Straus, William Loeb, jr., Collector of the Port; James S. Clarkson, Judge Otto A. Rosalsky, Julius M. Mayer, General Nelson H. Henry, Congressman Henry M. Goldfogel, Charles W. Anderson, Major Archibald Butt, aid to the President; Julius Harburger, Samuel S. Koenig, Ogden L. Mills, Henry L. Scrimson and Congressman William Sulzer.

Representative Sulzer, who made the speech of welcome to the President, said that it was especially gratifying to him to welcome Mr. Taft and to do it for the Hungarian Republican Club, whom he numbered among his constituents, though they were not of his political faith.

A crowd of 5,000 persons waited outside the Cafe Boulevard to see the President. It was not until 10:45 o'clock that the automobile in which he rode with Major Butt, and the escorting cars filled with Secret Service men, reached the cafe. The crowd cheered loudly while the President was in view, but he hurried inside, after bowing repeatedly, and made his way to a reception room on the second floor, where for a few minutes he was busy meeting his hosts and the large number of politicians who had gathered to meet him.

The meeting was notable for the number of politicians of local and national fame who were present to shake the President's hand. Among them were Collector William Loeb, Ex-Congressman Herbert Parsons, James F. Clarkson, Judge Rosalsky, Ex-Attorney General Julius M. Mayer, William Barnes, Jr., William Bennett, Congressman Sulzer and Goldfogel, William Williams, Immigration Commissioner; Lloyd C. Griscom, Marcus Braun, President of the Republican Club; Controller Prendergast, Charles H. Anderson, Samuel S. Koenig, and Max F. Grifenhagen. The Austrian Ambassador, Baron L. Hengelmueller de Hengevar, and the Austro-Hungarian Consul General, Alexander de Nuber, were also present.

The dinner was given in the President's honor by the Hungarian Republican Club, and although it did not begin until after 11 o'clock, a full course dinner of Hungarian dishes was served.

There were several decorations in special honor of the President at the dinner. Gustav Weber, head of the Hungarian colony in Florida, sent a white elephant made of carnations, which was hung over the table in front of him. Mr. Weber sent also an orange tree, which stood behind the President, and back of his chair was hung an oil painting of himself draped with American and Hungarian flags.

Marcus Braun presided and after a short speech introduced Congressman William Sulzer, Democratic representative of the district, as a man who has led them against their will for years and yet whom they liked and respected. Mr. Sulzer spoke briefly, tendering the President a hearty welcome and declaring:

"I call on the records to show that I have voted for President Taft's policies more frequently than some of the men in his party."

President Taft made a characteristic speech, complimenting the Magyar Americans and telling of the interest he had taken in an interview with Count Apponyi on his recent visit here.

It was after 1:30 o'clock before the President left the table, and the diners cheered him loudly as he went from the room. His automobile was waiting, and in it he was hurried to his hotel.

Sixth Annual Meet.
(By Sporting Editor.)

The sixth annual field and track meet of the Inter-Scholastic Athletic Association promises to be the best ever held in Washington. The scholastic events are championship games, and are therefore scratch contests, but open events are handicapped so that all athletes who enter will have a chance to win. Older boys and men who have never won a running prize in open games will compete in a 100 yard dash from scratch. There will be no high hurdle event and but one high jump. Elementary school boys in many sections are training for the championship competition in their class. A newly designed medal will be given this year, which is far more attractive than the former I. S. A. medal.

All athletes are advised to enter training at once for these games as entry blanks will be out soon and entries will close on May 20th.

For blanks and information, write E. B. Henderson, M. St. High School, Washington, D. C.

HOWARD THEATRE

Tst. near 7th, N. W.

The Theatre for the People

Matinee: Thursday & Saturday, 3 P. M.

Starting Monday, MAY 8 All The Week

Advance Vaudeville

—AND—
Animated Pictures

NOTICE—A COMPLETE CHANGE OF PICTURES EVERY NIGHT.

The Biggest and Best Show in Town

TWO PERFORMANCES NIGHTLY: 7:45 AND 9:15 P. M.

All Seats 10 Cents

CONCERTS SUNDAY NIGHT—EVERYTHING NEW—10 CTS.

Are You Watching?

Come and See Our

MAY Pole CARNIVAL

15th Street Presbyterian Church May 19

A glance at the daily newspapers will show that Negro athletes are coming to the front. Two Division Athletic Leagues of the P. S. A. L. have baseball going in full blast, and our miniature Johnstons, Lajoies and Cobbs are traveling in style.

The thirteenth and twelfth division leagues are a week ahead of the other division leagues, but the eleventh and tenth baseball teams will move along in great style when they once get to going.

Standing—12 D. A. L. Teams.	W.	L.
Logan	2	0
Payne	1	0
Jones	1	0
Douglas	1	1
Deannwood	0	0
Smothers	0	0
Lovejoy	0	1
Abby Simmons	0	1
Banneker	0	1
Ivy City	0	1

Committee plans are maturing to make the athletic features on July 4th better and larger than last year's games. The games this year will be handicapped games instead of scratch events as were held formerly and a larger number of entries are expected owing to the better chance of winning for those who are not top-notchers in their lines.

Freack events and spectacular events will be cut out and regular track and field events will be featured. Baltimore city entries ran up to the 1200 mark last year, and will be surpassed on this occasion. Our games should attract as well.

The track events for colored boys will be held on the campus of Howard University at 2 o'clock p. m., while swimming events will take place at the bathing beach in the morning.

Special attention is called to the fact that no entry fee will be charged and that all persons are invited free to both sets of events.

The events for the track and field games are: Junior events (all scratch); 50 yard dash (open to all athletes weighing 95 pounds and under); 75 yard dash (open to athletes weighing 120 pounds and under), and standing broad jump (open to athletes weighing 120 pounds and under. Senior events, open handicap—100 yard dash, novice; 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard dash, 880 yard run, mile run and running broad jump.

Athletes must be registered in the I. S. A. A. to compete in the open events.

Three hundred dollars' worth of medals of gold, silver and bronze will be ordered for the municipal games within a few days, the matter being in the hands of the committee on medals and badges. The seal of the District of Columbia will be the basis for the design on the face of the medals. The inscription "Municipal Games, July 4, 1911," will appear on the reverse of the medals, and there will be a space on which to engrave the winner's name and the name of the event.

The committees appointed are as follows: committee on medals and badges—D. E. Garges, chairman, and Spencer Bliss, James O'Shea and E. B. Henderson.

Committee on printing—W. C. Thatcher, chairman, and G. W. Holland, C. L. Harding and T. L. Fortune.

Committee on equipment—Dr. W. B. Hudson, chairman, and J. T. Meane, T. E. Stokes, William P. Bowie and William Tindall.

Press committee—W. G. Stuart, chairman, and William Peet, J. Ed. Gullo, Joe S. Jackson and Thomas Kirby.

Committee on Howard campus events—E. B. Henderson, chairman, and Lewis Johnson, G. C. Wilkinson, J. M. Saunders and G. S. Wormley.

H. B. Dismond, of Howard Academy, Washington, D. C., has returned with the biggest share of the honors competed for at the Smart Set games

Dismond in Swatfist.

Dismond is acknowledged the premier quarter miler in this section and clearly demonstrated to New Yorkers that he has no superior among the colored clubs there. It is his intention to enter the University of Pennsylvania upon graduation, and a big future will assuredly be his.

Ox Marrow.

We want our readers to patronize us; it helps all around. The Ozonized Ox Marrow Co. advertises in this paper, and when you want a first-class dressing for kinky, harsh and unruly hair, go to your druggist's and get a bottle of Ford's Hair Pomade, 25c or 50c a bottle.

Martin's.

When you want first-class service, go to Martin's, 11th and U streets northwest, on the boulevard.

The Porters' Exchange is under new management.

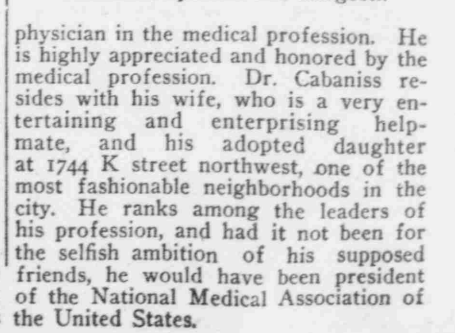

Mr. Thomas M. Redmon is the manager. Watch its opening.

Go to Xander's.

If you want pure wines and liquors, you should go to Xander's. It is the greatest wine house in the country.

Dr. Geo. W. Cabaniss.

One of the most successful and enterprising physicians in this city is Dr. Geo. W. Cabaniss. He is a man who has traveled very extensively throughout Europe. He attended the medical college in Germany and also pursued special studies in France. His trip abroad was a beneficial one to the distinguished and well known physician and surgeon. There is nowhere a more successful

DR. GEO. W. CABANISS. Eminent Physician and Surgeon.